

What Great Teams Do Great

What are the secret ingredients to having great teamwork and effective collaboration? During this session we will:

- Understand how teams – great and not-so-great - form
- Learn to identify the 'sweetspot' of collaboration
- Recognize the impact of different ways teams handle issues
- Provide a list of valuable resources to support great teamwork within your organization

The Human Resource Association of Southeast Michigan is pleased to introduce Lance Satterthwaite. Lance has been involved in providing personal growth and group development experiences for 25 years. Lance's work in both business settings as well as a former social worker has centered on effective leadership and teamwork principles that are highly applicable to both business and personal life scenarios. Lance is employed as an associate of Humanergy, Inc, a leadership and team development organization, based out of Marshall, MI, www.humanergy.com.
